B. Procedure for Admission

1. As per UGC Regulations 2016, the University shall admit M.Phil./Ph.D. students through an Entrance Test conducted at the level of the University. The University may decide separate terms and conditions for those students who qualify UGC-NET (including JRF)/UGC-CSIR NET (including JRF)/ AYUSH-NET¹²⁹/GATE/teacher fellowship holder or have passed M.Phil. Programme. Similar approach may be adopted in respect of Entrance Test for M.Phil. Programme.
2. Candidates will be admitted in a two-stage process through (i) an Entrance Test (to be held once a year, a common entrance test for M.Phil. and Ph.D. programme) and (ii) an interview that may be held twice in a year and more number of times, if required.
3. As per UGC Regulations 2016, the University will decide on an annual basis through the academic bodies, a predetermined and manageable number of M.Phil./Ph.D. scholars to be admitted depending on the number of available Research Supervisors and other academic and physical facilities available, keeping in mind the norms regarding the scholar- teacher ratio, laboratory, library and such other facilities.
4. As per UGC Regulations 2016, the University shall notify well in advance on its website and through advertisement in at least two (2) national newspapers, of which at least one (1) shall be in the regional language, the number of seats for admission, subject/discipline-wise distribution of available seats, criteria for admission, procedure for admission, examination centre (s) where entrance test(s) shall be conducted and all other relevant information for the benefit of the candidates.
5. The Departments will accordingly decide on an annual basis through M.Phil. Committee /DRC, a predetermined and manageable number of M.Phil./Ph.D. scholars to be admitted, and will notify well in advance on its Departmental website and through advertisement, the number of seats for admission, subject/discipline-wise distribution of available seats, criteria for admission, procedure for admission, syllabus for written test, Examination Centre(s) where entrance test(s) shall be conducted, selection criteria during interview and all other relevant information for the benefit of the candidates.

6. The Head of the Department shall consult the faculty members and college teachers, who are recognized to be *Supervisors*¹³⁰ as per UGC Regulation 2016, regarding the number of vacant seats available with each member in that academic year. Each prospective Supervisor may decide on the number of seats that he/she may like to fill in a particular year, within his/her maximum permissible strength and inform the Head of Department accordingly.

There shall be special provision of supernumerary Ph.D. seats not exceeding 10% of the total seats available in the Department, if there is no vacant seat available with the eligible Supervisors in that Department, for the in-service teachers for encouraging the faculty members of colleges and universities for getting a Ph.D. degree, as laid down in the UGC Regulations for Appointment of Teachers and Other Academic Staff in Universities and Colleges and Measures for the Maintenance of Standards in Higher Education, 2018.

7. Eligible College teachers will send their willingness to supervise M.Phil./Ph.D. students along with Curriculum Vitae and list of publications to the Head. The Head will ensure that information from the Department faculty and college teachers in this regard is available before the announcement of vacant seats.
8. In case of Departments that want to hold the interviews twice or more number of times in a year, they can notify their vacant seats at least 15 days before the schedule of interviews.
9. No research scholar registered for the M.Phil./Ph.D. programme shall be permitted to undertake any other full-time Programme during the pendency of the M.Phil./Ph.D. programme.
10. The admission to M.Phil./Ph.D. Programme will be according to the National Level Reservation Policy, as applicable from time to time, based on intake in a given academic year.

6. Candidates holding Junior Research Fellowships or equivalent research positions in projects, satisfying the minimum eligibility conditions (subject to selection by duly constituted committee as per the University norms for research projects) may also appear directly for interview.
7. Scientists/professionals working at R&D institutes of the Government of India/State Government with whom the University has signed a Memorandum of Understanding may directly appear for interview subject to fulfilling minimum eligibility criteria.
8. The allied subjects for admission to M.Phil./Ph.D. Programme in a particular Department shall be decided by the DRC of the respective Department in consultation with faculty members who have advertised for vacancies, based on their specific requirements. The list of allied subjects duly approved by the M.Phil. Committee/DRC may be submitted to the respective BRS for approval, after which it may be displayed on the website of the Department.

9. No candidate shall be eligible to register for the M.Phil./Ph.D. programme if he/she is already registered for any full-time programme of study in any University/Institution.
10. Foreign nationals fulfilling the eligibility criteria may be registered for M.Phil./Ph.D. over and above the maximum admissible strength. However, at any given time, the total number of foreign students shall not exceed 10% of the total admissible strength of the Department. Foreign nationals must provide evidence of language competence suited to the Department they wish to join. Foreign nationals are exempted from entrance test and interview. They may be admitted based on their research proposal, subject to fulfilling the minimum eligibility criteria. The decision regarding the same rests with the DRC subject to approval from BRS for the Ph.D. Programme and M.Phil. Committee for the M.Phil. Programme.

C-2 Categories for admission to Ph.D. Programme other than mentioned in C-1

1. Candidates who have been awarded or are pursuing M.Phil. Programme under the following categories may directly appear for interview:
 - a. Candidates who have cleared the M.Phil. coursework with at least 55% marks in aggregate (or its equivalent grade 'B' in the UGC 7-point scale or an equivalent grade in a point scale wherever grading system is followed) and have successfully completed the M.Phil. degree with at least 55% marks shall be eligible for appearing directly for interview. A relaxation of 5% of marks, from 55% to 50%, or an equivalent relaxation of grade, may be allowed for those belonging to SC/ST/OBC(non-creamy layer)/differently-abled.
 - b. Candidates who have cleared coursework of M.Phil. from University of Delhi with at least 55% marks in aggregate may directly appear for interview to Ph.D. without completing the M.Phil. Dissertation, if the candidate is interested in registering for Ph.D. without completing M.Phil. Programme.
 - c. A candidate who's M.Phil. dissertation has been evaluated and the viva voce is pending may appear directly for interview to the Ph.D. programme.
 - d. Candidates possessing a degree considered equivalent to M.Phil. Degree of an Indian Institution with 55% marks or from a Foreign Educational Institution accredited by an Assessment and Accreditation Agency which is approved, recognized or authorized by an authority, established or incorporated under a law in its home country or any other statutory authority in that country for the purpose of assessing, accrediting or assuring quality and standards of educational institutions, shall be eligible for admission to Ph.D. programme.

2. Faculty of Management Studies may shortlist candidates for appearing directly in interview for Ph.D. admission on the basis of CAT score.

All candidates appearing directly for interview have to register on the online admission portal.

D. Entrance Test and the Interview

1. There shall be a common Entrance Test for M.Phil. and Ph.D. programme to be conducted by the University, once a year, where both programmes are offered by the Department.
2. The Entrance Test will be a qualifying examination with qualifying marks as 50%. The syllabus for the entrance test will consist of 50% questions on research aptitude/methodology and 50% subject-specific questions.

¹³²*A relaxation of 5% of marks (from 50% to 45%) shall be allowed for the candidates belonging to SC/ST/OBC (Non-Creamy layers)/Differently-abled category in the entrance examination conducted by the University as per the UGC (Minimum Standards and Procedure for Award of M.Phil./Ph.D. Degrees) (1st Amendment) Regulations, 2018.*

If in spite of the above relaxation, the candidates for SC/ST/OBC (Non Creamy Layer)/Differently-Abled categories are not available, the respective DRCs shall explore suitable policies to fill most of the vacant seats keeping in mind the pool of candidates available from National Level Tests and other categories as per Clause C, Ordinance VI dated 9th August, 2017.

The Departments shall conduct interviews for M.Phil./Ph.D. admissions simultaneously for all the categories and ensure that the category of candidates is not revealed at the interview. Once the merit of the candidates is collated, the respective DRCs may allot the seats as per the reservation provisions of Government of India/the University.

3. The Entrance Tests in various Departments shall be staggered to allow the candidates to appear in written test in more than one subject, if they so desire.
4. The Entrance Test for Ph.D. Programme shall be conducted once in a year and the eligibility of shortlisted candidates shall remain valid till the next entrance test. The interviews may be held twice in a year or more, subject to availability of seats as determined by the DRC.
5. At the time of interview, if required, experts/prospective Supervisors from allied/specialized areas may be invited.

¹³² Amended/Replaced vide E.C.01-02.07.2019

6. At the time of interview, the candidates are required to discuss their research interest/area through a presentation before a duly constituted Committee. The interview shall also consider the following aspects:
 - a. the candidate possesses the competence for the proposed research;
 - b. the research work can be suitably undertaken at the University
 - c. the proposed area of research can contribute to new/additional knowledge.
7. The merit list of the recommended candidates shall be displayed on the website after approval by the M.Phil. Committee /DRC. There will be a waiting list in the order of merit.
8. The M.Phil. Committee /DRC reserves the right not to select candidates for all the vacancies advertised.
9. The M.Phil. Committee /DRC shall ensure that all University rules as well as reservation rules are followed in the admission process.
10. The registration of candidates in the Ph.D. programme may be confirmed by the BRS based on the recommendation of the DRC after completion of coursework. The registration of candidates in the M.Phil. programme may be confirmed by the M.Phil. Committee after completion of coursework.
11. The Department shall maintain a list of all the M.Phil./Ph.D. registered research scholars on its website on year-wise basis. The list shall include the name of each of the registered candidates, topic of his/her research, name of his/her supervisor/co-supervisor and date of enrolment/registration.

E. Coursework

1. The coursework for M.Phil. and Ph.D. shall be common, where both programmes are offered by the Department.
2. As per UGC Regulations 2016, the credit assigned to the M.Phil./Ph.D. course work shall be a minimum of 08 credits and a maximum of 16 credits. The course work shall be treated as prerequisite for M.Phil./Ph.D. preparation. A minimum of four credits shall be assigned to one or more courses on Research Methodology which could cover areas such as quantitative methods, computer applications, research ethics and review of published research in the relevant field, training, field work, etc. Other courses shall be advanced level courses preparing the students for Ph.D. degree.
3. All courses prescribed for M.Phil./Ph.D. programme coursework shall be in conformity with the credit hour instructional requirement and shall specify content, instructional and assessment methods. These courses shall be duly approved by the DRC and the BRS.
4. The Department where the research scholar pursues his/her research shall prescribe the course(s) to him/her based on the recommendations of the Research Advisory Committee of the research scholar.

5. All research scholars admitted to M.Phil./Ph.D. Programme shall be required to complete the coursework within initial one or two semesters.
6. Marks/Grades in the course work, including Research Methodology courses shall be finalized after a combined assessment by the Research Advisory Committee and the Department and the final marks/grades shall be communicated to the University.
7. The M.Phil. Committee/DRC shall satisfy itself that each research scholar has completed the requirement of coursework. The Head of the Department shall provide to the student a certificate of completion of coursework and names of courses opted by each student. If a research scholar fails to qualify the coursework, he/she may be allowed to reappear only once, within six months of the declaration of result. If the result is still found unsatisfactory, the M.Phil. Committee /DRC may recommend cancellation of his/her registration. This may be reported to the Board of Research Studies in case of Ph.D. scholars. Under special circumstances (e.g. medical reasons), a final decision may be taken by BRS on the recommendation of the DRC for Ph.D. scholars and M.Phil. Committee in case of M.Phil. scholar.
8. The credits of the coursework shall be transferable between the Departments of the University and inter-university, subject to their acceptance by the M.Phil. Committee /DRC.
9. The research scholars shall not be allowed to take up any assignment outside the University during the coursework.
10. Research scholars already holding M.Phil. Degree or equivalent M.Phil. Degree (equivalence to be determined by DRC) and admitted to the Ph.D. programme, or those who have already completed the coursework in M.Phil. of University of Delhi and have been permitted to proceed to the Ph.D. programme, may be exempted by the DRC from the Ph.D. coursework. All other research scholars admitted to the Ph.D. programme shall be required to complete the Ph.D. coursework prescribed by the Department.
11. A M.Phil./Ph.D. scholar has to obtain a minimum of 55% of marks or its equivalent grade in the UGC 7-point scale (or an equivalent grade/CGPA in a point scale wherever grading system is followed) in the course work in order to be eligible to continue in the programme and submit the dissertation/thesis.
12. Upon satisfactory completion of course work, and obtaining the marks/grade prescribed as the case may be, the M.Phil./Ph.D. scholar shall be required to undertake research work and produce a draft dissertation/thesis within a reasonable time, as stipulated by the University based on UGC Regulations, 2016.

13. The overall minimum credit requirement, including credit for the course work, for the award of M.Phil. degree shall not be less than 24 credits.
14. The M.Phil. dissertation will have a total of 300 marks (12 credits), including marks for viva-voce examination.
15. After admission to Ph.D. programme, the research scholar in consultation with the Supervisor, may propose a tentative title for Ph.D. thesis within one year. However, the final title for the Ph.D. thesis must be decided at the time of the pre-Ph.D. presentation. The final title will be subject to approval of the DRC and the BRS.

F. Attendance

Research scholars shall be required to attend lectures (coursework) and participate in seminars arranged in the Department during the programme. The minimum percentage of lectures to be attended during the coursework will be two-thirds of the lectures delivered in all courses, individually.

G. Eligibility Criteria for Supervisor

1. Any regular Professor of the University with at least five research publications in refereed journals and any regular Associate/Assistant Professor of the University/College with a Ph.D. degree and at least two research publications in refereed journals may be recognized as a Supervisor. Provided that in areas/disciplines where there is no or only a limited number of refereed journals, M.Phil. Committee/DRC and BRS may relax the above condition for recognition of a person as Research Supervisor with reasons recorded in writing.
2. Only a full-time regular teacher of Department/College of the University can act as a Supervisor. External supervisors are not allowed. However, Co-Supervisor can be allowed in inter-disciplinary areas from other Department/College of the University or other related institutions with the approval of the Research Advisory Committee.
3. A Research Supervisor/Co-supervisor who is a Professor, at any given point of time, cannot guide more than three (3) M.Phil. and Eight (8) Ph.D. scholars. An Associate Professor as Research Supervisor can guide up to a maximum of two (2) M.Phil. and six (6) Ph.D. scholars and an Assistant Professor as Research Supervisor can guide up to a maximum of one (1) M.Phil. and four (4) Ph.D. scholars. This is excluding supernumerary allotment. In case of co-supervision, an enrolled research scholar will be counted as one each, for the Supervisor and the Co-Supervisors.

H. Allocation of Supervisor

1. The allocation of Supervisor for a selected research scholar shall be decided by the M.Phil. Committee/DRC depending on the number of research scholars per Supervisor, the available specialization among the

ORDINANCE VI

Supervisors and research interests of the research scholar, as indicated by them at the time of interview.

2. In case of topics which are of inter-disciplinary nature and where the Department concerned feels that the expertise in the Department has to be supplemented from outside, the Department may appoint a Supervisor from the Department/College itself, who shall be known as the Supervisor, and a Co-Supervisor from outside the Department.
3. In case of relocation of a M.Phil./Ph.D. woman research scholar due to marriage or otherwise, the research data shall be allowed to be transferred to the University to which she intends to relocate, provided all other conditions in these regulations are followed in letter and spirit and the research work does not pertain to the project secured by the parent institution/Supervisor from any funding agency. The research scholar will, however, give due credit to the parent guide and the part of research, already done. The transfer of research data is applicable only if it is an independent project of the research scholar. In cases where the work being carried out is supported by a project secured by the parent institution/Supervisor, the research data/material will remain with the parent institution/supervisor.
4. In a Department where teachers are retiring, leaving or are proceeding on long leave on deputation or where unforeseen circumstances have necessitated change of Supervisor, the DRC shall appoint Supervisor(s)/Co-Supervisor(s) as supernumerary allotment. This may be approved by the respective BRS.
5. In cases where the Supervisor has three or less years before retirement, a Co-Supervisor from within the University shall be mandatory. Such Co-Supervisor(s) must be in active service at the time of submission of thesis. Those appointed as Supervisor shall continue to guide the particular research scholar as Co-supervisor after retirement and the Co-supervisor will become Supervisor in that particular case. Fresh Supervision/Co-Supervision is not permitted after retirement.
6. Faculty members on deputation/long leave for more than a year may not be included in the list of proposed Supervisors in a Department and in determining the number of vacant seats.
7. The DRC, on the recommendation of the Supervisor, may appoint scholars of eminence who may be residing in India or abroad, as Co-Supervisor(s).
8. The recommendation of the DRC regarding the appointment of Supervisor(s) shall be approved by the respective BRS.
9. Each Supervisor is entitled to take a fresh research scholar after submission of the thesis of his/her previously allotted research scholar, based on maximum permissible number for that faculty member.

I. Research Advisory Committee

1. There shall be a Research Advisory Committee for every research scholar, duly approved by the M.Phil. Committee/DRC. The Supervisor of the research scholar shall be the Convener of this Committee. The Committee will have at least three members, with at least one faculty member other than the Supervisor from the Department. This Committee shall have the following responsibilities:
 - a. To review the research proposal and finalize the topic of research.
 - b. To guide the research scholar to develop the study design and methodology of research and identify the course(s) that he/she may have to do.
 - c. To periodically review and assist in the progress of the research work of the research scholar.
2. The research scholar shall appear before the Research Advisory Committee once in six months to make a presentation of the progress of his/her work for evaluation and further guidance. The six monthly progress reports with the comments of the Research Advisory Committee shall be submitted to the M.Phil. Committee/DRC with a copy to the research scholar.
3. In case the progress of the research scholar is unsatisfactory, the Research Advisory Committee shall record the reasons for the same and suggest corrective measures. If the research scholar fails to comply with these corrective measures, the Research Advisory Committee may recommend to the M.Phil. Committee/DRC with specific reasons for cancellation of the registration of the research scholar.

J. Financial Assistance to Research Scholars

1. Research scholars who have cleared National Level examinations with JRF or equivalent shall get financial assistance from the concerned funding agency.
2. Research scholars who are working in projects as JRF and SRF shall get financial assistance from the designated projects.
3. Research scholars, who do not have any financial assistance, may be awarded Non-NET UGC fellowships. The University, depending on the grant available from UGC, will determine the number of fellowships under this category annually.
4. Financial assistance shall not be provided where the research scholar is availing paid study leave.
5. Foreign research scholars must show proof of financial support for the duration of the M.Phil./Ph.D. enrolment.

K. Leave

1. Any leave of more than thirty days from research work would require prior intimation and approval of the DRC and the BRS or the M.Phil. Committee. This period shall be counted in the total duration for submission of dissertation/thesis.
2. On the recommendation of the Supervisor and the DRC, the BRS may permit the research scholar to be away from the University of Delhi to pursue research related to Ph.D. work for not more than two semesters after completion of the coursework.
3. Women scholars may be provided Maternity Leave/Child Care Leave once in the entire duration of M.Phil./Ph.D. for up to 240 days. This period shall not be counted in the total duration for submission of M.Phil. dissertation/Ph.D. thesis.
4. The Supervisor must report absence from research work by research scholar due to illness, maternity leave or other circumstances to the M.Phil. Committee or DRC and BRS. Negligence of research work or any other acts of indiscipline must be recorded and reported to the DRC and the concerned BRS. On receipt of a complaint, the M.Phil. Committee/BRS may take appropriate action against the research scholar, including cancellation of his/her registration.
5. Only in exceptional cases, a research scholar may be allowed to de-register from the Ph.D. programme after successful completion of minimum duration of three years on the recommendation of the DRC and the approval of the BRS. The research scholar shall re-register within a period of three years. The Ph.D. thesis should be submitted within such a period that the period of initial registration and re-registration does not exceed the duration of the Ph.D. programme.

L. Duration of M.Phil./Ph.D. Programme

1. As per UGC Regulations 2016, the M.Phil. Programme shall be for a minimum duration of two (2) consecutive semesters/one year and a maximum of four (4) consecutive semesters/two years.
2. As per UGC Regulations 2016, Ph.D. programme shall be for a minimum duration of three years from the date of registration, including coursework and up to a maximum of six years.
3. Women candidates and Persons with Disability (more than 40% disability) may be allowed a relaxation of one year for M.Phil. and two years for Ph.D. in the maximum duration.
4. As per UGC Regulations, 2016, extension beyond the above limits will be governed by relevant clauses as stipulated in the Statute/Ordinance of the individual Institution concerned. For University of Delhi, these clauses are as below:

- a. The M.Phil. Committee may grant an extension of up to one year, on the recommendation of the Supervisor and the Research Advisory Committee.
- b. For Ph.D. scholars, beyond a period of six years, a six-month extension can be granted by the Board of Research Studies on a written justification for the delay by the research scholar. The request of the research scholar has to be recommended by the Supervisor and DRC of the respective Department.
- c. Only in exceptional cases, with specific recommendations and justification from the Supervisor, DRC and BRS, the Vice Chancellor may recommend extension beyond six and a half years in case of Ph.D. scholars.

M. Evaluation and Assessment

1. ¹³³*Prior to submission of the thesis, the research scholar shall make a pre-M.Phil./pre-Ph.D. presentation in the Department before the Research Advisory Committee, which shall be open to all faculty members and other students. The feedback and comments obtained from them may be suitably incorporated in the draft dissertation/thesis in consultation with the Research Advisory Committee.*

The supervisor shall forward the abstract of the thesis including Table of Contents and panel of six examiners to the Head of the Department for consideration by the DRC. The panel of examiners shall be eminent Scholars (Professors or equivalent, Associate Professor in special circumstances only but not more than two Associate Professors or equivalent among six proposed examiners) and specialists in the area of the thesis, normally not more than one from the same Department of a particular University/Institute.

The Head of the Department shall convene a meeting of the DRC within one month (or within a reasonable time) of submission of the abstract, table of contents and examiners list and forward the same to the BRS.

2. The research scholar shall submit the thesis after pre-Ph.D. presentation within a period of six months.
3. In case of issues related to Intellectual Property Rights, necessary patents shall be filed before disclosure in seminar.
4. A Ph.D. research scholar shall publish at least one research paper in a refereed journal before submission of the thesis and produce evidence for the same in the form of an acceptance letter or a reprint. This has to be certified by the Supervisor and the Head of the Department.
5. M.Phil. scholars shall present at least one paper (oral or poster) in conference/seminar before the submission of dissertation. Ph.D. scholars shall make two paper presentations (oral or poster) in conference/seminars before the submission of the thesis and produce evidence for the same in the form of a presentation certificate. This has to be certified by the Supervisor and the Head of the Department.

¹³³ Amended/Replaced vide E.C.29.10.2021.

ORDINANCE VI

6. The University shall evolve a mechanism using well-developed software and gadgets to detect plagiarism and other forms of academic unethical practices. Each dissertation/thesis will go through a Plagiarism Check that will be verified by the University Library before submission. The certificate of verification given by the library has to be submitted along with the thesis at the time of thesis submission in the Examination Branch. The thesis has to be submitted within 30 days from the date of plagiarism check.
7. The thesis must be a piece of original research work characterized either by the discovery of new facts, or by a fresh interpretation of facts or theories. In either case, it should show the research scholar's capacity for critical examination and judgment. It must be satisfactory as far as its language and presentation are concerned.
8. The research scholar may incorporate in the thesis the contents of any work published by him/her on the subject during the course of his/her Ph.D. and shall indicate the same in the thesis. If any content of the published work has been incorporated in the thesis of one of the authors, then the same content cannot be included by any of the other authors for award of any degree or diploma.
9. The M.Phil. dissertation submitted by a research scholar shall be evaluated by his/her Research Supervisor and at least one external examiner who is not in the employment of the University.
10. The viva-voce examination, based among other things, on the critiques given in the evaluation report, shall be conducted by both of them together, and shall be open to be attended by Members of the Research Advisory Committee, all faculty members of the Department, other research scholars and other interested experts/ researchers.
11. ¹³⁴*The concerned BRS shall review the recommendations of the DRC and forward the panel of examiners to the Examination branch on or before the submission of the thesis. In order to avoid delay, the Chairman of the respective BRS may approve the panel of examiners duly recommended by the concerned DRC and report the same in the next meeting of BRS.*
12. The Ph.D. thesis submitted by a research scholar shall be evaluated by three external examiners, who are/were not in employment of the University, of whom one examiner may be from outside the country.

It is expected that those who have retired from the University of Delhi, may not be appointed as external examiners. The viva voce examination, based among other things, on the critiques given in the evaluation report, shall be conducted by the Research Supervisor and at least one of the three external examiners as approved by the Vice Chancellor shall attend it. The viva voce shall be open to be attended by Members of the research Advisory Committee, all faculty members of the Department, other research scholars and other interested experts/researchers.

13. While submitting for evaluation, the dissertation/thesis shall have an undertaking from the research scholar and a certificate from the Research Supervisor attesting to the originality of the work, vouching that there is no plagiarism and that the work has not been submitted for the award of any other degree/diploma of the same Institution where the work was carried out, or to any other Institution. The Head of the Department shall countersign these certificates for submission of the M.Phil. dissertation/Ph.D. thesis. In case of resubmission, the same procedure may be followed. The research scholar shall also attach a Student Approval Form in the format provided by the UGC for hosting and distributing their thesis in digital format in 'Shodhganga', or any other server designated for this purpose by UGC.

¹³⁵ This Clause is supplemented by the provisions of UGC (Promotion of Academic Integrity and Prevention of Plagiarism in Higher Educational Institutions) Regulations, 2018, attached as Annexure -1.

14. The research scholar shall submit four double-sided typed and printed softbound copies of the Ph.D. thesis to the Examination Branch of the University. The soft copy of the Ph.D. thesis must be submitted in specified media (CD/DVD) in specified formats (Open Office/MS office Document Format, Tex, Latex or other standard Format) that are convertible to pdf file. The pdf file of the thesis may be sent to examiners via email.
15. The Examination Branch may send all communication to the examiners viz. request for consent, sending of Ph.D. thesis for evaluation and receive report/s electronically through e-mail.
16. The examiners may (i) recommend that the degree be awarded; (ii) recommend that the degree be awarded subject to corrections/revision being made in consultation with the Supervisor before viva voce; (iii) ask for resubmission of the thesis or (iv) reject the thesis.
17. The Supervisor will provide a general report and a technical report based on the comments of all the examiners duly signed by the Supervisor and the HOD to the Examination Branch. Anonymous reports of the examiners should be shared with the research scholar only for the purpose of revision only.

ORDINANCE VI

18. As per UGC Regulations 2016, the public viva-voce of the research scholar to defend the dissertation shall be conducted only if the evaluation report(s) of the external examiner(s) on the thesis is/are satisfactory and include a specific recommendation for conducting the viva-voce examination. If the evaluation report of the external examiner in case of M.Phil. dissertation, or one of the evaluation reports of the external examiner in case of Ph.D. thesis, is unsatisfactory and does not recommend viva-voce, the University shall send the dissertation/thesis to another external examiner out of the approved panel of examiners and the viva-voce examination shall be held only if the report of the latest examiner is satisfactory. If the report of the latest examiner is also unsatisfactory, the dissertation/thesis shall be rejected and the research scholar shall be declared ineligible for the award of the degree.

19. For Ph.D. thesis evaluation, the corresponding actions suggested in the following table may be followed based on the comments/observations received from external examiners:

Recomm- endation	Examiner 1	Examiner 2	Examiner 3	Action Suggested
Event 1	Accept	Accept	Accept	Viva-Voce
Event 2	Accept	Accept	Minor Correction	Revise thesis in Consultation with Supervisor followed by Viva-Voce
Event 3	Accept/ Resubmission	Resubmission	Resubmission	Resubmission within one year after incorporating suggestion. Thesis to be sent to all examiners again.
Event 4	Accept	Accept	Resubmission	Thesis to be sent to fourth examiner whose recommendation shall be final. If 4 th examiner recommends for revision, thesis will be sent to same examiner after revision. Resubmission within one year after incorporating suggestion
Event 5	Accept	Accept	Reject	Thesis to be sent to fourth examiner. If 4 th examiner rejected the thesis, registration of the student shall be closed/cancelled.
Event 6	Accept/ Resubmission	Reject/ Resubmission	Reject	Reject and cancel registration

For any cases that need special consideration, a Special Committee consisting of the Vice-Chancellor, Dean of Examination, Dean (Academic),

*Controller of Examination (If any) may be referred to for a decision in the matter.*¹³⁶

20. The public viva voce of the research scholar to defend the Ph.D. thesis shall be conducted only if the evaluation report(s) of the external examiner(s) on the thesis is/are satisfactory and include a specific recommendation for the conduct of the viva voce examination.
21. The open viva voce by the research scholar may also be done through Skype/Video conferencing, if required.
22. If the thesis has undergone revision after external evaluation, the soft copies of the final version of the Ph.D. thesis, after revision, must be re-submitted to the Examination Branch. In order to ensure that the soft copy is complete and exact replica of the print version accepted for award of Ph.D., the Department Supervisor/Head must authenticate the soft copy submitted by the scholar.
23. Following successful completion of the evaluation process and the announcement of the award of the M.Phil./Ph.D., the University shall submit an electronic copy of the M.Phil. dissertation/Ph.D. thesis to the Examination Branch to be submitted to INFLIBNET for hosting the same to make it accessible to all Institutions/Colleges.
24. The University shall develop appropriate methods so as to complete the entire process of evaluation of Ph.D. thesis within a period of six months from the date of submission of M.Phil. dissertation/Ph.D. thesis.
25. Prior to the actual award of the degree in convocation, the University may issue a Provisional Certificate to the effect that the Degree has been awarded in accordance with the provisions of the UGC Regulations, 2016.
26. Provided that the Ph.D. programmes in the Faculty of Medical Sciences, shall be governed by the relevant Regulations of the Medical Council of India, as amended from time to time. Provided, however, the matters or processes on which the Medical Council of India regulations are silent, the relevant provisions of the Ordinance VI shall apply.

N. Academic, administrative and infrastructure requirement to be fulfilled by Colleges for getting recognition for offering M.Phil./Ph.D. programmes (as per UGC Regulation, 2016):

1. Colleges may be considered eligible to offer M.Phil. /Ph.D. programmes only if they satisfy the availability of eligible Research Supervisors, required infrastructure and supporting administrative and research promotion facilities as per these Regulations.
2. Post-graduate Departments of Colleges, Research laboratories of

Provided that the Principal of a College in the case of B.Com. may permit to proceed to the next higher class a student who falls short of the required percentage by not more than 10 per cent of the lectures or practicals or tutorials/ preceptorials held during the whole of the year, but a student so permitted shall not be deemed to have completed a regular course of study in the next succeeding year unless he has made up the shortage condoned.

(3) (a) The required conditions shall not be deemed to have been satisfied in respect of the Master of Business Administration Course unless a candidate has attended :

- (i) three-fourths of the lectures delivered in each academic year during his course of study, and

- (ii) three-fourths of the tutorials and case-discussions conducted in each academic year during his course of study.

The minimum attendance of three-fourths shall be required separately at lectures and at tutorials and case-discussions:

Provided that, he fulfils other conditions as laid down hereinafter, the Head of the Department of Business Management and Industrial Administration may permit a student to proceed to the next higher class who falls short of the required percentage of attendance by not more than 10 per cent of the lectures or tutorials and case-discussions delivered or conducted during the whole of the first year of the course, but a student so permitted shall not be deemed to have completed a regular course of study in the next succeeding year unless he has made up the shortage so condoned.

Further in addition to the above, the conditions shall not be deemed to have been satisfied unless a student undergoes practical training under the supervision of the department in organisations, as approved by the University from time to time, for at least two months.

Such practical training shall be done during the course of study and as may be prescribed by the Head of the Department. No one who passed the M.B.A. Examination shall be eligible for the grant of the degree unless he has undergone the prescribed practical training to the satisfaction of the Head of the Department.

(4) In the case of students in the B.Sc. Nursing (Honours) Course, the required conditions shall not be deemed to have been satisfied unless a candidate has attended such number of lectures and practicals whether by way of work in wards, nursing-home or otherwise, as may be prescribed by the Head of the Department, but any shortage in practicals may be made up even after the final examination, but the degree shall not be awarded until such shortage has been made up.

(5) In the case of students in the Master of Nursing Course, the required conditions shall not be deemed to have been satisfied unless a student:

- (i) has attended not less than three-fourths of the lectures and class- room practicals in each subject. during each semester; and
- (ii) has done not less than three-fourths of the practicals held during each semester, whether by way of work in the hospital, community or otherwise as may be prescribed by the Head of the Department. However, 100 per cent practical requirements must be completed before or after the Semester IV Examination but the Degree shall not be awarded until a student has completed the practical work.

Provided that the Principal of the College may permit to proceed to the next higher class a student who falls short of the required percentage by not more than 10 per cent of the lectures or practicals during the whole of the year, but a student so permitted shall not be deemed to have completed a regular course of study in the next succeeding year unless he/ she has made up the shortage condoned.

(6) In the case of students in the M.Ed. course, the required conditions shall not be deemed to have been satisfied unless a student has pursued a regular course of study for not less than one academic year, preceded by at least 3 years' teaching experience in a recognised educational institution:

Provided that the above condition regarding teaching experience may be waived at the discretion of the Head of the Department in the case of candidates whose standing in the B.Ed. Examination and the preceding degree examination justifies this concession or who have had adequate research experience.

(7) In the case of the students for the M.A. Course in Social Work, the required condition shall not be deemed to have been satisfied unless a student has attended atleast three-fourths (75%) of the total number of lectures delivered, during each academic year.

Provided that the Head of the Department may permit to proceed to the next higher class a student who falls short of the required percentage by not more than 10% of the lectures during the I year, but a student so permitted shall not be deemed to have completed a regular course of study in the next succeeding year unless he/she has made up the shortage condoned.

Provided further that a student who falls short of required attendance at lectures at the end of the II Year and the shortage does not exceed 10% the required attendance shall be calculated on the total number of lectures delivered during the I and II years taken together.

In addition to the attendance at lectures as aforesaid, a student for the M.A. Course in Social Work shall be required to satisfactorily complete the Block Field Work under the supervision of the Head of the Department of Social Work. Such Block Field Work will be done as prescribed by the Head of the Department after the examinations. The degree shall not be awarded until a certificate to the effect from the Head of the Department is submitted to the Registrar, University of Delhi.

¹³⁹8 (a) From the Academic year 2014-15, all the students of LL.B. shall have to put in minimum attendance of 70% of the lectures in each of the courses as also at the moot courts, tutorials and practical training course conducted or taught in a semester for taking the examination.

Provided that if a student for any exceptional reasons fails to attend 70% of the classes held in any subject or training course, the Dean of the Faculty of Law may allow the student to take the examination for the semester if the student concerned attended at least 65% of the classes held in the subject concerned and attended 70% of classes in all the subjects taken together in all the courses of the semester.

Provided further the Dean, Faculty of Law or a committee constituted by the Dean, in this regard may allow attendance up to fifteen days in one semester or twenty days in a year for participation in recognized Moot Court Competitions, Seminars and Conferences, Legal Aid Camps and activities, sensitization programmes, Training Programmes relevant to Legal Education, etc.

ORDINANCE VII

The Dean of the Faculty or Professor-in-charge of the Law Centre shall have power to strike off the name of a student who is grossly irregular in attendance in spite of warning or when the absence of the student is for such a long period that he/she cannot put in requisite percentage of attendance for the semester.

Note: For the students already enrolled in any of the Centres or Faculty of Law before 2014-15 the present rules in clause 8 as prior to this amendment shall continue to govern their cases.

(b) In the case of students studying for the LL.M. Part I Examination, no student shall be deemed to have pursued a regular course of study unless: -

(i) he has attended not less than two-thirds of the total number of lectures delivered during the academic year in which he has been admitted as a regular student, and

(ii) he has submitted not less than seven essays of the requisite standard as prescribed by the Dean during the academic year.

(c) In the case of students studying for the LL.M. Part II Examination, no student shall be deemed to have pursued a regular course of study unless he has attended at least ten of the seminars conducted for the LL.M. Part II classes, five of which must have been attended before he appears at the examination in the written papers.

Note: (i) The term 'Lectures' referred to in (b) above will include lectures and discussion classes.

(ii) In determining the exact number of the minimum requisite attendance, i.e., two-thirds of lectures, tutorials, seminars, moots, etc., fractions shall be ignored.

(9) (a) Subject to the provisions of sub-clauses (b) and (c)

(i) In the case of a student who is selected as a member of the N.C.C. to participate in the annual N.C.C. Ord. VIII-E - 'Internal Assessment'

(1)

(i) The scheme for Internal Assessment shall be followed in the regular stream only, with exclusions as per the Appendix, and shall be applicable to the students admitted from the academic session 2003-04 onwards (i.e. to begin with for the first year students) in both undergraduate and post-graduate degree courses. This scheme of Internal Assessment shall not be applicable to the School of Correspondence Course and

¹⁵⁰ Amended/Replaced vide E.C. 25.04.2011

Continuing Education, Non-Collegiate Women's Education Board and Non-Formal Education Cell (formerly External Candidates Cell). The specific Ordinances pertaining to schemes of examinations of various courses shall stand amended, mutatis mutandis, to the extent of internal assessment as laid down in this Ordinance, subject to exclusions referred to above.

- (ii) Internal Assessment marks shall be shown separately in the Marks Sheet issued by the University and these marks shall be added to the annual/semester examination marks for determining the division of the student.
- (2) 25% of the maximum marks in each paper in undergraduate courses shall be assigned for Internal Assessment and the remaining 75% marks for the annual/semester University Examination; the time duration and other modalities of the annual/ semester Examination with respect to this 75% component shall remain as per existing schemes of examination for various undergraduate courses.
- (i)
 - (a) ¹⁵¹For the Annual Examination Scheme, there shall be 10% weightage assigned to House Examinations to be conducted by each college, for all subjects in B.A., B.Com. and B.Sc. courses and all papers of the Main subject in Honours course. For the Semester Examination Scheme, there shall be 10% weightage assigned to Class Test(s)/Quiz(s) to be conducted by each college, for all subjects in B.A., B.Com. and B.Sc. courses and all papers of the Main Subject in Honours courses.
 - (b) The duration of each paper in the House Examination shall be the same as the duration in the University Examination. The maximum marks for each paper of the House Examination shall be 100 or the same as the maximum marks in the corresponding University Examination.
 - (c) The University reserves the right to scrutinize some or all the scripts of any paper in any course in a College during the period of retention of papers, Which duration shall be till declaration of results by the University, a copy of the question paper shall be sent to the Examination Branch of the University and the College shall maintain a proper record of the question papers of the House Examination.
 - (ii)
 - (a) Each student shall be assessed on the basis of written assignments/tutorials as well as on the basis of project reports/term papers/seminars. There shall be 10% weightage for such written assignment; and project reports/presentations/term papers/seminars. Each student shall be given at least one written assignment per paper in each term, subject to a maximum of 12 written assignments per year for all the papers taken together.

- (b) Where the maximum marks in a paper are less than 100, for example 50 marks, the nature of written assignments/ tutorial work shall stand adjusted pari passu.
- (iii) There shall be 5% weightage for regularity in attending lectures ¹⁵²(including interactive periods) and tutorials, and the credit for regularity in each paper, based on attendance, shall be as follows:

More than 67% but less than 70%	-	1 mark
70% or more but less than 75%	-	2 marks
75% or more but less than 80%	-	3 marks
80% or more but less than 85%	-	4 marks
85% and above	-	5 marks

[Medical certificates shall be excluded while calculating credit towards marks to be awarded for regularity, though such certificates shall continue to be taken into account for the purpose of calculating eligibility to appear for examinations as per the existing provisions of Ordinance VII.2.9(a)(ii).]

- (iv) There shall be a Moderation Committee for Internal Assessment in each College, discipline-wise, which shall comprise of the senior most teacher in the department, the teacher-in-charge of the department and the previous teacher-in-charge of the department: provided that if, for any reason, the membership of the Committee falls below 3, the Principal of the college shall nominate suitable members from among the teachers of that department/college to fill the vacancies.
- (3) With the introduction of Internal Assessment, the maximum marks for the University Examination in each paper shall stand reduced accordingly.
- (4) The promotion criteria shall be as per the existing Ordinances for University Examinations, as applicable to respective courses. In addition, the same criteria shall apply to the total of the University Examination and the Internal Assessment, taken together.
- (5)
- (i) There shall be a Monitoring Committee for Internal Assessment at the University level consisting of the Dean of Colleges as the Chairperson along with three other Deans one of whom shall be a member of the Executive Council, and the Controller of Examinations as Member-Secretary. The Committee shall monitor the receipt of Internal Assessment marks from various colleges and ensure timely compliance. If a College fails to submit the Internal Assessment marks in time, the University shall not declare the result for such a course in that College. The responsibility for non-declaration of the result of any course in the college in such circumstances will be solely that of the college.

- (ii) There shall be a Monitoring Committee for Internal Assessment in every College, which shall be chaired by the Principal of the College and will be made up of the Vice- Principal (and in case there is no Vice-Principal, the Bursar), Secretary Staff Council, and two senior faculty members to be nominated by the Principal. This Committee shall be responsible for the entire process of Internal Assessment in the College, including redressal of grievances, if any.
- (6)
- (i) ¹⁵³In the case of students who repeat one or more paper(s), or all papers of any Part or Semester, the Internal Assessment marks shall be carried forward.
 - (ii) In the following special cases, in lieu of Internal Assessment, students shall be awarded marks (for the previous years' papers) in the same proportion as the marks obtained in that paper in the University Examination:
 - (a) ¹⁵⁴Students who migrate from other Universities to the University of Delhi in the 2nd Year/Third Semester;
 - (b) Students who fail in the Part I Examination of Honours Courses and join Pass/General Courses in the IInd year; and
 - (c) Students who transfer from 1st year Pass/General Courses to Honours Courses in the 2nd year.
 - (iii) Students who migrate from non-formal streams in the University of Delhi (i.e. School of Correspondence Courses and Continuing Education, Non-Collegiate Women's Education Board and Non-Formal Education Cell, formerly External Candidates Cell) to the Regular stream and vice versa, shall carry as such the marks obtained in the preceding year(s).
- (7) Tutorials shall be held regularly for the post-graduate courses of the University by the concerned Department in cooperation with Colleges; and at least 25% marks shall be assigned for Internal Assessment in each paper of the post-graduate courses. The Internal Assessment in the post-graduate courses may be based on regularity and attendance; class tests and house examination; and written assignments, projects/term papers/seminars/field-work. Post-graduate courses where the weightage of Internal Assessment is 25 per cent or more, Departments may continue with the existing schemes.
- (8) In the case of a student who is selected as a member of the N.C.C. to participate in the annual N.C.C. Camps or is deputed to undertake Civil Defence work and allied duties, or in the case of a student who is enrolled in the National Service Scheme and is deputed to various public assignments

- 6. Candidates who have been granted an Honours Degree after one course of study, may, after pursuing a further course of study, approved by the Dean, for not less than two academic years, be admitted to the examination of any other Honours course Part I and II examination simultaneously at the end of the second academic year and Part III Examination at the end of the third academic year but shall be required to take the papers in the main subject only of the Second Honours course and not in any Subsidiary subject except in the case of B.Sc. (Honours) Courses where the candidates shall be required to take the papers in the main subject as well as in such of the Subsidiary subjects for the second Honours Course which they had not offered for the first Honours Course, either as main subject or as one of the Subsidiary subjects.

7. ¹⁵⁷Passing/Promotion Criteria and eligibility for the award of Degree for the Honors and Programme Courses under the Three Year Semester-Scheme.

(i) A student who has obtained 40% in the aggregate taking together all the papers in theory examination (including internal Assessment/project work) and practical examinations separately, conducted in the first and second semesters shall be promoted to the second academic year/third semester and similarly from the second academic year to third academic year/fifth semester.

(ii) A student who has obtained 40% in the aggregate taking together all the papers in theory examination (including internal assessment / project work) and practical examinations separately, till the end of the third year i.e. upto the end of the sixth semester shall be awarded the Bachelor's with Honours degree in case of Honours courses (B.A.(Hons) / B.Com(Hons) / B.Sc.(Hons) and Bachelor's Degree in programme courses (B.A./B.Com and B.Sc.).

(b) A student shall be eligible for promotion from 1st year to 2nd year of the course provided she/he has passed 50% papers of I and II Semester taken together.

(c) Similarly, a student (irrespective of Part I results) shall be eligible for promotion from 2nd year to 3rd year of the course provided she/he has passed 50% papers of III and IV Semesters taken together.

(d) Students who do not fulfill the promotion criteria (b) & (c) above shall be declared fail in the Part concerned. However, they shall have the option to retain the marks in the papers in which they have secured Pass marks as per Clause (a) above.

(e) A student who has to reappear in a paper prescribed for Semester I/III/ V may do so only in the Semester examinations to be held in November/December. A student who has to reappear in a course prescribed for Semester II/IV/VI may do so only in the examination to be held in April/May.

(2) ¹⁵⁸Reappearance in Passed Papers:

(a) A student may reappear in any theory course prescribed for a semester, on foregoing in writing her/his previous performance in the paper/s concerned. This can be done in the immediate subsequent semester examination only (for example, a student reappearing in a course prescribed for Semester I examination, may do so along with subsequent Semester III examination and not along with papers for Semester V).

- (b) A candidate who has cleared the papers of Part III (V & VI Semesters) may reappear in any paper of V or VI Semester only once, at the immediate subsequent examination on foregoing in writing her/his previous performance in the paper/s concerned, within the prescribed span period. (Note: The candidate of this category will not be allowed to join any postgraduate courses)
- (c) In the case of reappearance in a paper, the result will be prepared on the basis of candidate's current performance in the examination.
- (d) In the case of a candidate, who opts to re-appear in any paper/s under the aforesaid provisions, on surrendering her/his earlier performance but fails to re-appear in the paper/s concerned, the marks previously secured by the candidate in the paper/s in which she/he has failed to re-appear shall be taken into account while determining her/his result of the examination held currently.
- (e) Reappearance in Practical Examinations ¹⁵⁹and project work of Foundation Courses shall not be allowed.
- (f) A student who reappears in a course shall carry forward the internal assessment marks, originally awarded.

(3) Division Criteria

A student who passes all the papers prescribed for Semester I to Semester VI examinations would be eligible for the degree. Such a student shall be categorized on the basis of the combined result of Semester I to Semester VI examinations as follows:-

60% or more	First Division
50% or more but less than 60%	Second Division
40% or more but less than 50%	Third Division

"Provided that the Courses regulated by different regulatory bodies like Medical Council of India, AICTE etc. will be governed by the regulations prescribed by their respective regulatory bodies from time to time.

F (Fail)	0	$\bar{X} - \sigma > m$

A student obtaining Letter Grade F (Numerical Grade 0) shall be considered failed and will be required to re-appear in the examinations

- (b) No student will be detained in I or III Semester on the basis of his/her performance in I or III Semester examination; i.e. the student will be promoted automatically from I to II and III to IV Semester.

For M.Com: Students shall be required to fulfill the part to part promotion criteria. Within the same part, students shall be allowed to be promoted from a semester to the next semester, provided he/she has passed at least half of the courses of the current semester.

- (c) A student shall be eligible for promotion from 1st year to 2nd year/III semester of the course provided he/she has passed 50% papers of I and II Semesters taken together. However, he/she will have to clear the remaining paper/s while studying in the 2nd year (III and IV semesters) of the programme.
- (d) Students who do not fulfill the promotion criteria (c) above shall be declared fail in the 1st Year. However, they shall have the option to retain the Grades in the papers in which they have secure minimum 'Numerical Grade 4' (Letter Grade 'D') i.e. Pass Grades as per the formula prescribed at Table 'A'.
- (e) A student who has to reappear in a course prescribed for Semester I/III may do so only in the odd Semester examinations to be held in November/December. A student who has to reappear in a course prescribed for Semester II/IV may do so only in the even Semester examinations to be held in April/May.

- (f) In those Post-Graduate courses under the CBCS, where the total number of students is up to 30, the results in Grades shall be prepared on the basis of the actual performance of the student in the percentage scale and not on the basis of the formula prescribed at Table 'A' for computation of Grades.
- (g) Examination for Practical, wherever applicable shall be based on continuous evaluation.
- (h) Duration of end semester theory examinations of Core, Elective and Ability Enhancement compulsory courses (AECC) shall be three hours and for 100 marks each (70% End semester performance and 30% Internal Assessment). The Internal Assessment shall be based on combination of tutorials, classroom participation, project work, seminar, term papers, tests, assignments and attendance. The weightage given to each of these components shall be decided and announced by the respective Departments in the beginning of semester.
- (i) There shall be no supplementary examinations.

(2) Reappearance in passed papers:

- (a) A student may reappear in any theory course prescribed for a semester, on foregoing in writing her/his previous performance in the paper/s concerned. This can be done once only in the immediate subsequent semester examination only (for example, a student reappearing in a course prescribed for Semester I examination, may do so along with the immediate next Semester III examinations only).
- (b) A candidate who has cleared the papers of Part II (III & IV Semesters) may reappear in any paper of III or IV Semester only once, at the immediate subsequent examination on foregoing in writing her/his previous performance in the paper/s concerned, within the prescribed span period.

(Note: The candidate of this category will not be eligible to join any higher course of study)
- (c) In the case of reappearance in a paper, the result will be prepared on the basis of candidate's current performance in the examination.
- (d) In the case of a candidate, who opts to re-appear in any paper/s under the aforesaid provisions on surrendering her/his earlier performance but fails to re-appear in the paper/s concerned, the Grades previously secured by the candidate in the paper/s in which she/he has failed to re-appear shall be taken into account while determining her/his result of the examination held currently.

- (e) Reappearance in Practical examinations, dissertation, project and field work shall not be allowed.
- (f) A student who reappears in a course shall carry forward the internal assessment marks, originally awarded.

(3) Eligibility for award of Degree and Division Criteria:

- (a) A student who passes all the papers (minimum 'Numerical Grade 4') prescribed for Semester I to Semester IV examinations would be eligible for the award of degree. Such a student shall be categorized on the basis of the combined result of Semester I to semester IV examinations as follows: (Based on the Conversion Formula from CGPA to final Percentage)

60% or more	First Division
50% or more but less than 60%	Second Division
Less than 50% & declared passed	Third Division

- (b) The formula for calculating the final percentage of marks from Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) for final year students under CBCS will be as follows:

Final Percentage of marks = CGPA based on overall four semesters x 9.5

Provided that the programmes regulated by different regulatory bodies like Medical Council of India, AICTE etc. will be governed by the regulations prescribed by their respective regulatory bodies from time to time.

(4) Issue of Transcripts:

Based on the grades earned, a Grade Certificate shall be issued to all the registered students by the University after every semester and a consolidated transcript indicating the performance in all semesters. The Grade Certificate will display the course details (code, title of the paper, number of credits, grade secured) along with SGPA of each semester and CGPA earned based on overall six semesters.

The percentage shall not be displayed on the Grade Certificate/Transcript. Only the formula approved for the conversion of CGPA into percentage will be displayed on the Grade Certificate/Transcript.

which she/he has failed to re-appear shall be taken into account while determining her/his result of the examination held currently.

- (e) Re-appearance in practical/internal assessment shall not be allowed.
- (f) All papers of Core, Elective, Ability Enhancement Compulsory Courses (AECC) and Skill Enhancement Courses (SEC) shall be for 100 marks each and 25 marks shall be for Internal Assessment (IA).
- (g) Examination for Practical wherever applicable shall be based on continuous evaluation.
- (h) Duration of end semester theory examinations of Core and Elective subjects shall be three hours.
- (i) The entire evaluation process for AECC and Skill Enhancement Courses (SEC) shall be undertaken by each college where the AECC and SEC are being taught and the teacher responsible for the conduct of learning of the AECC and SEC shall be responsible for the evaluation.
- (j) There shall be no internal assessment in practical papers.
- (k) There shall be no supplementary examinations.
- (l) Paper setting and evaluation of the answer script of the concerned paper shall be coordinated by the respective boards appointed by the Competent Authority. In case of all Core Courses offered in different programmes across the disciplines, the assessment / evaluation of the theoretical component towards the end of the semester should be undertaken by external examiners from outside the college at the UG level who may be appointed by the Competent Authority.
- (m) Eligibility for award of degree under CBCS.

(3) Letter grades and grade points

- (a) A student who becomes eligible for the degree as per Ordinance IX, 12(1). Such a student shall be categorized on the basis of the combined result of semester I to semester VI examinations under CBCS on a 10 point grading system with the following Letter Grades as given below:

Letter Grade	Grade Point

Ord. X. General Rules for Examinations

1. Applications for admission to University examinations shall be made in the prescribed form and forwarded to the Registrar through the Principal of the College or where instruction is imparted exclusively by the University, through the Dean of the Faculty concerned:

Provided that teachers and non-collegiate women candidates shall apply direct to the Registrar in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

2. While forwarding the applications for admission to various examinations to be held in any year the Principal of the College or the Head of the Department or the Dean of the Faculty concerned, as the case may be, shall be required to 'certify in respect of each applicant as follows:

"that the candidate has satisfied himself by the production of a certificate of a competent authority that he has passed the examination which qualifies him for admission to the examination."

The Controller of Examinations shall send the admission tickets of all the candidates, whose applications for admission to the various examinations have been received by the Principal of the College or the Head of the Department or the Dean of the Faculty concerned, as the case may be, for delivery to the candidates concerned. Before delivering the admission ticket to each candidate the Principal of the College or the Head of the Department or the Dean of the Faculty concerned, as the case may be, shall satisfy himself that the candidate concerned has put in the requisite attendance at lectures etc. as laid down in the Ordinances of the University and is otherwise eligible to appear at the respective examination. The admission tickets in respect of candidates who have not fulfilled the attendance requirements or are otherwise not eligible to appear at the examination shall not be delivered to them and shall be returned to the Controller of Examinations together with a statement showing the detailed attendance position and/or other facts in each case.

Provided that if practical examination in any subject is held before the examination in theory papers, it shall not be necessary for the Controller of Examinations, in respect of candidates who are pursuing a regular course of study, to send Admission Tickets to enable them to take such practical examination, and it shall suffice if he sends a list containing the roll numbers of such candidates to the Principal of the College or the Head of the Department or the Dean of the Faculty, as the case may be, for being put up on the notice board of the Institution concerned to enable such candidates to take their examination on the basis of the roll numbers assigned to them. Such candidates shall take the practical examination provisionally subject to their being issued Admission Tickets later in terms of the foregoing provision.

3. Teacher candidates and non-collegiate women candidates shall apply direct to the Registrar for admission to examinations in the manner prescribed, but shall not be admitted to any examination before the expiry of the same number of years after they have passed the examination which qualifies them to seek such admission as in the case of regular students.

4. (1) Application for admission to examinations shall be accompanied by the prescribed fees.

(2) A candidate who from sickness or other cause is unable to present himself for any examination shall not be entitled to claim a refund of his fees, but the Executive Council may for sufficient cause permit the candidate to present himself at the next ensuing examination without payment of a further fee.

5. (1) Subject to the provisions contained in Clause 2 above every candidate whose application has been accepted by the University for admission to an examination shall be given an admission ticket showing the name of the candidate and the roll number assigned to him for admission to the examination.

(2) The ticket shall be sent in the case of a college student to the Principal of the College who will give it to the candidate after obtaining his signature on the ticket.

(3) In the case of other candidates the tickets shall be issued by the Registrar after obtaining their signatures in the same way.

6. A candidate may not be admitted into the examination hall, if he fails to present to the officer-in-charge of the examination his admission ticket or to satisfy the officer that it will be produced within a reasonable time.

7. The Officer-in-Charge of the examination shall have power to call upon any candidate appearing at an examination to give a specimen signature for purpose of identification.

8. Permission to appear at a University examination may be withdrawn before or during the course of the examination for conduct which, in the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor, justifies the candidate's exclusion.

9. If a candidate for any University examination owes any money to the University or his College on any account and fails to pay the money, or has borrowed or has in his possession any book, apparatus, or other property belonging to the University or his College, or any kit supplied by the N.C.C. and fails to return the same, the Vice-Chancellor may withhold or authorise the withholding of the admission ticket of the candidate, or, if the admission ticket has already been issued suspend the order of admission till all such money has been paid or such property returned by the candidate.

In the case of a College student, the Vice-Chancellor shall exercise this power after a reference to the Principal of the College concerned.

10. Notwithstanding anything contained expressly or impliedly in these rules, the Vice-Chancellor may, on being satisfied after such enquiry as he may deem fit, withdraw retrospectively, prior to the publication of the final result of a candidate in a course, the permission granted to such candidate to pursue that course or to appear at a University examination in relation thereto, on the ground that or cancel the result of such candidate, if it comes to his notice, within 4 months of the publication of the said final result that:

- (i) the candidate was ineligible for admission to the course but was wrongly admitted, or
- (ii) the candidate was ineligible to take the examination on account of shortage of attendance but was permitted to do so by some mistake or some other unavoidable reason, or

- (iii) a discrepancy was found in the attendance record on account of which the candidate who had taken the examination was in fact ineligible, or
- (iv) a discrepancy was discovered in the award of marks etc. which rendered that result of the candidate liable to be cancelled to his disadvantage.

Provided that no such action shall be taken by the Vice- Chancellor without giving an opportunity to the concerned candidate to show cause against the proposed action and provided further that such action shall require the confirmation of the Academic Council.

11. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Statutes and the Ordinances, the regulations may provide for all other matters relating to conduct of examinations including those concerning examination committees, tabulation of marks and results, fee for re-checking examination results and for the supply of marks, dates for submission of examination forms, directions to candidates for examinations, directions to superintendents of examinations and duties of invigilators.

Ord. X-A. Disorderly conduct and use of unfair means in examination.

- (A) For the purposes of this Ordinance -
- (a) Examination means an examination conducted by the University of Delhi;
 - (b) The year means the academic year;
 - (c) Candidate includes an examinee taking any examination in a particular year and, wherever the context so permits, every student on the rolls of the University or of a recognized College or Institution;
 - (d) The use of dishonest or unfair means in the examination include:

 - (vii) getting impersonated by any person in examination;
 - (viii) deliberately disclosing one's identity or making any distinctive mark in the answer book for that purpose;
 - (ix) communicating with or talking to any other candidate or unauthorised person in or around the examination room during the course of the examination;
 - (x) communicating or attempting to communicate directly or through a relative, guardian and friend with an examiner with the object of influencing him in the award of marks;

- (e) Disorderly conduct in the examination includes:
- (i) misbehaviour in connection with the examination, with the Superintendent, the Invigilator on duty or the other staff working at the Examination Centre, or with any other candidate, in or around the examination centre, before, during or after the examination hour;
 - (ii) leaving the examination room before the expiry of half an hour or without handing over the answer book to the Invigilator-in-charge or without signing the attendance sheet;
 - (iii) intentionally tearing off the answer book or a part thereof or a continuation sheet;
 - (iv) disturbing or disrupting the examination;
 - (v) inciting others to leave the examination room or to disturb or disrupt the examination;
 - (vi) carrying into the examination centre any weapon of offence.

2. No candidate shall make use of any dishonest or unfair means or indulge in disorderly conduct in the examination.

3. A candidate found guilty of the use of dishonest or unfair means or disorderly conduct in the examination may be disqualified from passing the examination for which he was a candidate, and may, in addition, be debarred from appearing at any future examination of the University for a further period to be stated or be expelled from the University and declared not a fit and proper person to be admitted to any further examination of the University.

4. (a) Any candidate who, in the opinion of the Invigilator on duty or the Examiner conducting a practical or oral examination or the Superintendent of the Examination Centre, contravenes or is suspected of contravening the provisions of clause 2 in the examination room, shall be forthwith challenged by such Invigilator, Examiner or Superintendent who shall ask for a signed statement from the candidate.

The candidate may be subjected to a search of his person to recover any incriminating material from him by the examination staff on duty.

(b) Without prejudice to the provision contained in sub-clause (a) above the Superintendent of an Examination Centre or the Examiner conducting practical or oral examination shall also have the power to expel a candidate who in his opinion, has contravened the provisions of clause 2, from the examination centre for the remaining duration of the paper.

5. (a) The Superintendent of the Examination Centre or the Examiner or any Officer of the University, as the case may be, shall report in writing to the Controller of Examinations the case of every student who has contravened the provision of clause 2.

(b) The reporting authority shall give full facts of the case in his report and forward with it the statements, if any, made on the occasion by the candidate and the

ORDINANCE X

Invigilator on duty and papers, books and other material recovered from the candidate, if any.

6. There shall be one or more Examination Disciplinary Committees. Each such Committee, hereinafter referred to as the Examination Disciplinary Committee shall be constituted as under:

- (a) On the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor the Executive Council shall, at the beginning of each year, draw up a panel of teachers of the University to be nominated on the Examination Disciplinary Committee.
- (b) Each Examination Disciplinary Committee shall comprise of two teachers to be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor from amongst the panel, one of them being of the status of at least a Reader.
- (c) The Controller of Examinations or any person authorised by him, of the rank of not less than an Assistant Controller of Examinations, will function as non-member Secretary of the Examination Disciplinary Committee.

7. The Vice-Chancellor shall determine from time to time the number of Examination Disciplinary Committees.

8. (a) The Controller of Examinations or any person authorised by him in this behalf shall communicate to the candidate, in respect of whom a report has been received pursuant to clause 5(a). the precise nature of allegations against him and shall require him to furnish his written explanation within a stipulated period.

(b) On receipt of the explanation from the candidate or on the expiry of the period stipulated for submitting explanation if no explanation is received from him the Vice-Chancellor shall assign his case for consideration to the Examination Disciplinary Committee and, where there are more Committees than one, such Examination Disciplinary Committee as he may deem fit.

9. After considering all the material on record including the explanation, if any, submitted by the candidate, the Examination Disciplinary Committee if satisfied that the candidate is guilty of the use of dishonest or unfair means or disorderly conduct in the examination, shall recommend to the Executive Council the punishment that may be imposed on the candidate under clause 3 according to the nature of the offence.

10. The Executive Council may, after considering the report, of the Examination Disciplinary Committee take such action against the candidate under clause 3 as it may deem fit.

ORDINANCE X

11. ¹⁷⁶A candidate on whom any punishment has been imposed under clause 3 may, within 15 days from the date of the receipt of the communication in that behalf, make a representation to the Vice-Chancellor for review of his case and the Vice-Chancellor, if satisfied that the case is fit for reconsideration refer the same to the Executive Council. The Executive Council may thereupon review the case and pass such orders as it may consider fit.

12. In the case of a candidate who has been expelled from the University in terms of provisions of Clause 3, the Executive Council may, on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor, on the expiry of three years after such expulsion including the examination in connection with which he was punished, exempt a candidate from further operation of the punishment awarded.

13. If within four months of the publication of the results, it is brought to the notice of the Controller of Examinations that a candidate was guilty of the use of dishonest or unfair means at the examination in respect of which his result was declared, the provisions of this Ordinance shall apply mutatis mutandis to the case of such a candidate provided that before imposing any penalty including the penalty of cancellation of his result, he shall be given another opportunity, to show cause against the proposed punishment and his explanation, if any, shall be considered by the Executive Council.

13. A. A candidate against whom an enquiry is pending about his allegedly having resorted to the use of dishonest or unfair means or disorderly conduct in the examination or against whom action is initiated under the provisions of the preceding clause shall, if he takes or has taken any subsequent examination, be deemed to have been only provisionally admitted to that subsequent examination. That examination will stand cancelled and his result thereof would not be declared if on account of the punishment imposed on him as a result of the said enquiry or action, he would not have been entitled to take that examination but for his provisional admission thereto.

14. If a person, not otherwise covered by these provisions, is found guilty of having impersonated a candidate or of having written, outside the examination hall, an answer book or its any page or a continuation sheet which he knows or has reason to believe will be smuggled into the examination hall for the benefit of any candidate, or of having managed otherwise to replace the answer book or its any page of the candidate after the examination, he shall be disqualified from appearing in any University examination for a period to be stated. The provisions of this Ordinance relating to the manner of imposition of penalty shall, in so far as they may be applicable, apply to the case of such a person.

- (x) Participate in extension, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities, including the community service.

II. Teachers and Students

Teachers should:

- (i) Respect the rights and dignity of the student in expressing her/his opinion;
- (ii) Deal justly and impartially with students regardless of their religion, caste, gender, political, economic, social and physical characteristics;
- (iii) Recognise the difference in aptitude and capabilities among students and strive to meet their individual needs;
- (iv) Encourage students to improve their attainments, develop their personalities and at the same time contribute to community welfare;
- (v) Inculcate among students scientific temper, spirit of inquiry and ideals of democracy, patriotism, social justice, environmental protection and peace;
- (vi) Treat the students with dignity and not behave in a vindictive manner towards any of them for any reason;
- (vii) Pay attention to only the attainment of the student in the assessment of merit;
- (viii) Make themselves available to the students even beyond their class hours and help and guide students without any remuneration or reward;
- (ix) Aid students to develop an understanding of our national heritage and national goals; and
- (x) Refrain from inciting students against other students, colleagues or administration.

III. Teachers and Colleagues

Teachers should:

- (i) Treat other members of the profession in the same manner as they themselves wish to be treated;
- (ii) Speak respectfully to other teachers and render assistance for professional betterment;
- (iii) Refrain from making unsubstantiated allegations against colleagues to higher authorities; and
- (iv) Refrain from allowing considerations of caste, creed, religion, race or sex in their professional endeavour.

IV. Teachers and Authorities

Teachers should:

- (i) Discharge their professional responsibilities according to the existing rules and adhere to procedures and methods consistent with their profession in initiating steps through their own institutional bodies and / or professional organisations for change of any such rule detrimental to the professional interest;
- (ii) Refrain from undertaking any other employment and commitment, including private tuitions and coaching classes which are likely to interfere with their professional responsibilities;
- (iii) Co-operate in the formulation of policies of the institution by accepting various offices and discharge responsibilities which such offices may demand;
- (iv) Co-operate through their organisations in the formulation of policies of the other institutions and accept offices;
- (v) Co-operate with the authorities for the betterment of the institutions keeping in view the interest and in conformity with the dignity of the profession;
- (vi) Adhere to the terms of contract;
- (vii) Give and expect due notice before a change of position takes place; and
- (viii) Refrain from availing themselves of leave except on unavoidable grounds and as far as practicable with prior intimation, keeping in view their particular responsibility for completion of academic schedule.

V. Teachers and Non-Teaching Staff

Teachers should:

- (i) Treat the non-teaching staff as colleagues and equal partners in a cooperative undertaking, within every educational institution;
- (ii) Help in the functioning of joint-staff councils covering both the teachers and the non-teaching staff.

VI. Teachers and Guardians

Teachers should:

- (i) Try to see through teachers' bodies and organisations, that institutions maintain contact with the guardians, their students, send reports of their performance to the guardians whenever necessary and meet the guardians in meetings convened for the purpose for mutual exchange of ideas and for the benefit of the institution.

VII. Teachers and Society

Teachers should:

RESIDENCE, HEALTH AND DISCIPLINE BOARD

ORDINANCE XV

CHAPTER VI

OF BOARDS AND STANDING COMMITTEES

Ord. XV. Residence, Health and Discipline Board

1. (1) The Board of Residence, Health and Discipline shall be constituted as follows:

1. The Proctor, Chairman and Convenor;
2. The Director of Health Services, Delhi State, or a medical practitioner deputed by him to act in his absence;
3. The University Engineer;
- 4-8. Five persons, including a woman, appointed by the Executive Council, not necessarily from among their own member;
9. A Senior Architect from the C.P.W.D., nominated by the Chief Engineer, C.P.W.D., New Delhi.

Provided that the Principal of a College or a person nominated by the Principal shall be a member of the Board when the College concerned is being inspected by the Board.

(2) The members of the Board, other than ex-officio members, shall hold office for a period of two years.

2. Subject to the Ordinances, the Board shall inspect once in every academic year each College together with such buildings as may be occupied therewith for the use of students, and shall submit a report to the Executive Council with such recommendations as it may think fit.

3. The Board may at any time direct one or more of its members to make a special inspection, and to report on any College regarding compliance with the condition of residence as laid down by the Ordinances, in addition to the inspection.

4. (1) Any matter of residence, health or discipline which a Principal desires to refer to the Board respecting his College and any matter involving Inter-Collegiate or Inter-Hall discipline on which the Principals concerned are unable to come to an agreement, shall be dealt with by the Board, but there shall be the right of appeal in such cases to the Vice-Chancellor, whose decision shall be final.

(2) Subject to any powers conferred by the Act or the Statutes, on the Vice-Chancellor, all matters of discipline in the University which are either not directly cognizable by, or after due warning by the Proctor, are not investigated and decided by a Principal shall be dealt with by the Board.

5. (1) Every student of the University shall live either-
- (a) in a College of which he is a member, or

(b) with a parent or some person accepted by his College to be his guardian, or

(c) in the case of a woman student, with a parent or some person accepted by the Proctor to be her guardian.

Every resident student shall conform to regulations drawn up by the Principal of his College.

(2) The Board shall submit to the Executive Council, after consultation with the Principals, draft Ordinances prescribing the conditions of residence to be observed in the Colleges.

6. As soon as possible after the re-opening of a College after the long vacation, the Principal shall submit to the Board the following information:

(a) the number of the hostels and the names of Superintendents; (b) the number of resident students in each hostel;

(c) the number of non-resident students living with their parents; (d) the number of non-resident students living with their guardians.

7. All Colleges shall provide adequate facilities for the physical exercise of their students, and shall forward a statement of the same to the Board.

8. (1) The inspection of the Colleges by the Board shall be carried out and completed by the 15th of November each year, and the inspection report shall be forwarded by the Proctor to the Registrar within two weeks after completion of the inspection.

(2) The report shall be placed before the Executive Council before the Christmas holidays, and the resolutions and recommendations, if any, of the Executive Council on the report shall be forwarded to the Principals concerned, who shall inform the University of the action, if any, that has been taken or is proposed to be taken on the resolutions and recommendations.

(3) The observations of the Principals shall be forwarded to the Proctor by the end of January, and the Proctor shall make a final report to the Executive Council. At the time of the next inspection the Board shall have before it the report of the previous year and the resolutions and recommendations of the Executive Council and the replies from the Principals and shall make a report as to what action, if any, has been taken in the matter.

9. In this Ordinance "College" shall include Hall and a recognised Institution, and "Principal" shall have a corresponding meaning.

Ord. XV-A. Board of Inter-Disciplinary Programmes

1. There shall be a Board called "Board of Inter-disciplinary Programmes."

2. Subject to the overall control and supervision of the Academic Council the Board shall have power to sanction establishment of Centres of Inter-disciplinary Programmes and approve the setting up of committees for preparing blueprints for such Inter-disciplinary Programmes and for operationalising the same.

3.²¹⁷The Board of Inter-disciplinary Programmes shall be constituted as follows:

1. Vice-Chancellor or his nominee (Chairman)
2. Pro-Vice-Chancellor
- 3-7. Five members of the teaching staff of the University/Colleges nominated by the Academic Council for their inter-disciplinary involvement.
- 8-12. Five eminent academicians known for their involvement in inter-disciplinary programmes from outside the University to be nominated by the Executive Council.
13. A person not below the rank of Deputy Registrar nominated by the Vice-Chancellor to act as Secretary.

4. The essential functions of a Centre of Inter-disciplinary Programme will include developing mechanism to facilitate the coming together of scholars from different departments/disciplines and institutions of the University for collaborative research and/or teaching in the programme and perform such administrative functions as may be necessary for implementation of the programme.

5. In the event of setting up of any Centre of Inter-disciplinary programme, the Board will also set up an Academic Advisory Committee for the Centre consisting of distinguished scholars in the field from within and outside the University and report the same to the Academic Council M.Phil. Committee/Board of Research Studies concerned, as the case may be.

6. The Academic Advisory Committee of any Centre shall perform the following functions:

- (i) select fellows and associate fellows from the faculties of the University departments and the Colleges on the basis of their research interest, record and the proposals made;
- (ii) contribute to the coordination and strengthening of teaching programmes in the institutions of the University in the area of interest of the centre;
- (iii) initiate, develop and strengthen research programmes in the area of interest of the centres; and
- (iv) submit an annual report of its activities to the Board of Inter-disciplinary Programmes.

7. The Director of the Centre who shall be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor after due consultation with the Board of Inter-Disciplinary Programmes shall be the Chairman of the Academic Advisory Committee in each case.

8. A report about the functioning of the Board of Inter-disciplinary Programmes shall be submitted to the Academic Council at the end of each academic year.

- (e) entail verbal abuse and aggression, indecent gestures and obscene behaviour.

4. The Principal of a College, the Head of the Department or an Institution, the authorities of College, of University Hostel or Halls of Residence shall take immediate action on any information of the occurrence of ragging.

5. Notwithstanding anything in Clause (4) above, the Proctor may also suo moto enquire into any incident of ragging and make a report to the Vice-Chancellor of the identity of those who have engaged in ragging and the nature of the incident.

6. The Proctor may also submit an initial report establishing the identity of the perpetrators of ragging and the nature of the ragging incident.

7. If the Principal of a College or Head of the Department or Institution or the Proctor is satisfied that for some reason, to be recorded in writing, it is not reasonably practical to hold such an enquiry, he/she may so advise the Vice-Chancellor accordingly.

8. When the Vice-Chancellor is satisfied that it is not expedient to hold such an enquiry, his/her decision shall be final.

9. On the receipt of a report under Clause (5) or (6) or a determination by the relevant authority under Clause (7) disclosing the occurrence of ragging incidents described in Clause 3 (a), (b) and (c) the Vice-Chancellor shall direct or order rustication of a student or students for a specific number of years.

10. The Vice-Chancellor may in other cases of ragging order or direct that any student or students be expelled or be not for a stated period, admitted to a course of study in a college, departmental examination for one or more years or that the results of the student or students concerned in the examination or examinations in which they appeared be cancelled.

11. In case any students who have obtained degrees of Delhi University are found guilty under this Ordinance appropriate action under Statute 15 for withdrawal of degrees conferred by the University shall be initiated.

12. For the purpose of this Ordinance, abetment to ragging whether by way of any act, practice or incitement of ragging will also amount to ragging.

13. All institutions within the Delhi University system shall be obligated to carry out instructions/directions issued under this Ordinance, and to give aid and assistance to the Vice-Chancellor to achieve the effective implementation of the Ordinance.

FINANCE COMMITTEE

Ord. XVII. Finance Committee

1. No re-appropriation of allotments in the annual budget shall be made except by the Executive Council on the advice of the Finance Committee.

2. The Finance Committee shall make such reports to the Executive Council from time to time as it may think fit on any matter affecting the finances of the University.

CHAPTER VII OF COLLEGES AND HALLS

Ord. XVIII. Colleges other than those Maintained by the Government of India

1. No College shall have more than 1,000 students on its rolls and in case of an Extended College, not more than 1,500 students, except with the specific approval of the University.

1-A.

A College seeking recognition as a Constituent College must have an endowment fund of Rs.5 lakhs of which at least Rs.3 lakhs should be immediately available and the balance to be deposited within four years, and have either suitable buildings or a building fund of at least Rs.3 lakhs. It shall also satisfy the University that either it already has 7-8 acres of land (4-5 if there is no hostel attached) or has reasonable prospects of having the same for the College building.

A College seeking recognition as an affiliated College must have an endowment fund of Rs.3 lakhs of which Rs.2 lakhs should be immediately available and the balance to be deposited within two years, and have either suitable buildings or a building fund of at least Rs.2 lakhs. It shall also satisfy the University that either it already has a minimum of 3 acres of land (or 5 acres of land if hostel is attached) or has reasonable prospects of having the same:

Provided that the provisions of this clause shall not apply in the case of a college whose entire financial responsibility is borne by the Government of India/Delhi Administration in conjunction with the University Grants Commission.

1-B. Permanent Affiliation

(a) Subject to the provisions of Statute 30, the Executive Council may grant permanent affiliation to any institution if the following conditions are satisfied:

- (i) that the constitution and personnel of the Governing Body are in accordance with the Ordinances and Statutes of the University.
- (ii) that the fees levied or proposed to be levied and the provision made for the expenditure on buildings and for the continued maintenance and efficient working of the institution are in accordance with the rules and regulations laid down by the University.

(iii) that satisfactory arrangements exist for library, laboratory (in case of science subjects) and other facilities and emoluments of the teaching and non-teaching staff and their terms and conditions of service are in accordance with the Ordinances of the University.

(b) The Executive Council may, if it is so desired, cause an institution to be inspected for the purpose of ascertaining that the above conditions are satisfied.

Provided that no institution shall be granted affiliation unless it has a standing of one year, has fulfilled all the conditions of affiliation and attained the academic and administrative standards prescribed by the University from time to time.

2. The Governing Body will meet at least once in a term, and, subject as hereinafter provided, shall have general supervision and control of the affairs of the College and maintain its own records of its proceedings which shall be open to inspection by the inspection authority.

(1) The members of the Governing Body, other than the Principal, shall hold office for a period of one year and shall be eligible for re-appointment or re-election, provided that in respect of teachers' representatives provisions of Sub-Clause (2) of this Clause shall apply.

Provided that on the expiry of one year the Executive Council may, either on the request of the Trust/Delhi Administration or on its own, as the case may be, if it is satisfied that the circumstances so warrant, extend the term of the existing nominees of the Trust/Delhi Administration on the Governing Body for a further period not exceeding six-months but not more than three months, at a time.

Provided further that on the grant of approval by the Executive Council the existing office bearers of the Governing Body shall continue to function as such for the extended period.

(2) The teacher's representatives shall become members of the Governing Body by rotation according to seniority. At least one of the representatives from among the teachers of the Day Classes and one of the representatives from among the teachers of the Evening Classes (where Evening Classes are held and Evening teachers are represented on the Governing Body) shall be from among those with more than 10 years of service and at least one from among those from the Day Classes and one from among those from the Evening Classes with less than 10 years of service. If, however, eligible candidates are not available in one of those categories, namely, those with more than 10 years' service and those with less than 10 years' service, all the representatives may be taken from the other. The term of membership of teachers' representatives shall be for a period of one year:

Provided that a teacher who has become a member of the Governing Body of a College under the category of teachers with less than 10 years' service and completes his ten years' of service during the term of his membership as such, will nevertheless continue to be a member of the Governing Body for the full term of one year.

Note: For the purpose of this Clause "teachers" will be understood to be those holding a permanent whole time post, with requisite service in the College in question.

- (3) The Governing Body shall elect from among its own members a Chairman to hold office for one year provided that this does not exceed his current term as a member of the Governing Body, and shall be eligible for re-election.
- (4) In this Clause and in subsequent Clauses of this Ordinance, if not specified, Principal includes Principal (Evening Classes).

- (1) The Governing Body shall appoint a Treasurer from among its own members to supervise the receipts and expenditure of the Governing Body, who shall be responsible for the proper keeping of its accounts.
- (2) The Governing Body, on the recommendation of the Principal, shall appoint a Bursar who shall be a member of the teaching staff and who shall assist the Principal in the maintenance of accounts and in the day-to-day financial affairs of the College. The Principal and Bursar shall jointly operate the Bank account within the budget estimates relating to maintenance grant items duly approved by the Governing Body.
- (3) The Principal shall be the Member Secretary of the Governing Body and shall not accept the membership of the Governing Body of any other College of the University. It shall be the duty of the Member-Secretary to summon meetings with the consent of the Chairman and in accordance with the Regulations framed by the Governing Body for the purpose and to record proceedings of the meetings.
- (4) ²²¹An existing Senior Faculty, who fulfill the qualifications for the post of Principal, may be designated as Vice-Principal by the Governing Body of the College on the recommendation of the Principal, for a tenure of two years, who can be assigned specific activities, in addition to concerned faculty member's existing responsibilities. During the absence of the Principal, for any reason, the Vice Principal shall exercise the powers of the Principal. The appointment of such Vice-Principal shall require the approval of the University.

- (5) ²²²Omitted**

- 5. The accounts of the college shall be kept in such form as the University Grants Commission may prescribe. The accounts shall be audited by an auditor chosen by the Governing Body out of a panel of three Auditors approved by the University in consultation with the Institute of Chartered Accountants, New Delhi.
