No. CEO/DUSU/Elec/2013/
Dated : 10.09.2013

Dear Students,

The elections for Delhi University Students Union (DUSU) are due on September 13, 2013. The University under the guidance of the Vice-chancellor has made all arrangements for the conduct of peaceful, transparent, free and fair elections.

The electoral process has already begun. The rules governing the elections as per Lyngdoh Committee Report, the important dates and the code of conduct, have been put on the website of the university. The names of the contestants have also been put on the website of the university.

With a view to help you to make an informed choice, the candidates have been given an opportunity on the Delhi University Community Radio and the website to propagate their respective manifestoes and program of action. Please visit the website, and listen to the DU Community Radio to have a better understanding of the candidates and be acquainted with their plans to fulfill your expectations.

I appeal to all of you to participate in the elections in large numbers and vote without fear, coercion, prejudice and temptation of any kind.

While selecting the candidate of your choice you should keep in mind the candidates who can truly represent you in the decision-making bodies of the University. The elected candidates should be able to present your aspirations and expectations from the University and its authorities in the most authentic way. In addition, they should have the ability to perform their constitutional duties and be capable of taking the DUSU and the University forward.

You should vote only for those candidates who adhere to the code of conduct and the constitution of the DUSU. While making the decision you should remember that only those will be able to effectively, in a lawful manner, promote your cause, who follow the rules and regulations, care for the environment by saving paper used for making posters, help maintain the beauty of your city by refraining from defacing its walls, or indulging in any other illegal activities.

Your decision to support only those candidates who respect the rules governing elections will go a long way in helping the University conduct the elections as per the law.

Looking forward to your active co-operation and participation in the DUSU Elections, 2013, and the prayer that may the best candidates win, and every good wish for each one of you, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
